GOD BLESS AMERICA!

God bless our men and women who put their lives on the line to preserve freedom around the world. We thank God for our good fortune to be citizens of the USA. We continue to pray for our men and women overseas especially, Justin Gousha, Raymond Henry, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Mark LaGrossa, Jamie Lowe, Martin Renzi, Frank Rodriguez, Brian Simmons, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Charity Winkler, Robert Wittiw, Eric Quinnett, Kevin Beebe, Jr., Michael Ekimogolu, Christopher Fusco, Maj. Chris Pajak, Charity Winkler, Jamie Lowe, Brian Schwartz, Eric Freeman, Josh Little and Charles Vincent O'Connor. If someone has returned home, we ask that you let us know. Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen ✚

Dear Friends in Christ,

This past Saturday, our Second Graders celebrated their First Penance. This special moment for them allowed their parents and friends present to see the joy of having one's sins forgiven. It is amazing how our young people can articulate that they have made mistakes. Regretfully, we can lose this ability as we grow older. We can blame others or convince ourselves that we are not at fault. The Sacrament of Penance is such a gift from God. I know that many will say they do not need an intermediary between them and God. Why go to a priest? I will say that I am sorry directly to Him? All of the Sacraments fulfill the traditional definition of a sacrament offered to us: "A sacrament is an outward sign instituted by Christ to give grace." Each sacrament has its tangible aspect to allow us to experience on all levels the love of the Lord. Water in baptism, chrism and laying on of hands for confirmation or the vows for marriage are sensible expressions, whether feeling, hearing or seeing. Naming our sins and expressing sorrow is the path to have Jesus tell you through the priest that your sins are forgiven. Who would deny that they need grace? We hope we are forgiven when we ask; we know we are forgiven when we go to confession. Personally, I like surety. "Then He breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive men's sins, they are forgiven them; if you hold them bound, they are held bound.'" (John 20:22-23). These are the words of Christ. Do not deny this gift from the Lord. This is part of any Lenten program. Go to confession and be free to receive graces beyond belief.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

New Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Every Sunday at the 10:00 AM Mass, we will see a family receive a Crucifix to take home for the week to pray for vocations to the Holy Priesthood and Religious Life. It is contained in a beautiful hand-crafted box which also serves as a stand for the Crucifix. Prayers to be used by the host family are on a laminated program in the box. Every weekend the host family will return the Crucifix in procession and a new host family will receive it at the end of Mass. Sister Vilma is the crucifix for vocations coordinator. Let us pray for holy vocations to religious life from our parish. If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Father Szolack.

HOUSE OF CHARITY

Congratulations to Fr. Joseph Szolack and the volunteers and donors to the 2012 House of Charity Campaign for raising their goal in cash and pledges. Thanks to some additional gifts that arrived in December and January, the parish has gone over their "Raised" amount and now looks forward to "collecting" the balance of that goal amount over the next 2 months. All parishes that "collect" their 2012 goal amounts by March 31, 2013 are eligible to receive back 10% of their goal for use toward local charitable needs. In addition, 75% of any overage collected will also be returned for local charitable needs. Payments on those 2012 pledges should be sent by March 15th in order to be included in the parish collected amount. Donations and payments can also be made by visiting the diocesan secure website at www.camdendiocese.org and clicking the House of Charity link.
