Dear Friends in Christ,

Our country is gearing up for the visit of Pope Francis to the United States of America. This will be the Holy Father's first visit to our land and he is in our prayers as he comes to us to proclaim the Gospel. The media is certainly taking notice of this visit and will more than likely put their own spin on his words, gestures and all that he does. If you are not attending the Holy Father's visitations in person, take the time to watch as much as you can. Use your DVR and/or read his actual words. Snippets that are used to make headlines or to cause sensationalism will hardly help one to be challenged to grow in a relationship with Christ. Any sentences out of context may cause great confusion and that certainly is not the desire of Pope Francis. He wants us to experience the living Gospel, to have a daily encounter with our Lord and Savior. I once read that a friend of Pope Francis noted that the Holy Father believes every word of the Gospel and that he does not compromise on what Jesus said. Our Lord says to give to the poor, to take the lowest seat, to be humble, to love and to forgive our enemies. These are only a few of the challenges of being a disciple of Jesus and Pope Francis calls us to look at our lives and compare the way we live with the only One to whom we should compare ourselves: Jesus of Nazareth. May Pope Francis come to us to remind us as a nation that we are a country founded on Judeo Christian values and that the further we stray from the Truth, the further we lose ourselves.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Memoriam

Our parish and rectory staff commends a dear friend, Patricia Quigley Ubaldi, into the merciful arms of Our Savior. Pat was the secretary at Saint Margaret Parish for forty-six years. She untiringly carried out her work for Saint Margaret Parish and School with a love for her Catholic faith. Pat will be greatly missed, but we know that she is being reunited with loved ones who have gone before her. We offer our sympathy to her children and grandchildren and we thank her family for sharing someone so special with our parish family. Rest in peace with the Lord, Pat!

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

God bless our men and women who put their lives on the line to preserve freedom around the world. We thank God for our good fortune to be citizens of the USA. We continue to pray for our men and women overseas especially, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Martin Renzi, Brian Simmons, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Chris Fusco, Charity Winkler, Brian Schwartz and Josh Little. If someone has returned home, we ask that you let us know. Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name.

Statement of Bishop Dennis Sullivan Regarding Pope Francis' Motu Proprio Mitis Iudex Dominus Iesus

On the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Pope Francis promulgated a letter entitled The Lord Jesus, Gentle Judge, which revised the canonical procedures for Catholics seeking a declaration of nullity (annulment) for a marriage.

The Holy Father made it clear what the Church's law and pastoral life are ordered to the practice of charity and mercy and ultimately the salvation of souls. In fact, pope Francis made it clear that he is "not promoting the nullity of marriage, but the quickness of the processes, as well as a correct simplicity" of annulment procedures. These changes have resulted from the world-wide consultation for last year's Extraordinary Synod and the recommendations of a commission of canonists impaneled by the Holy Father to review annulment procedures and the Church's law.

In the coming months new procedures and policies will be developed. I have asked the Diocesan Tribunal to prepare presentations for priests, deacons and the faithful before the beginning of December. In this way the Diocese of Camden will be ready on December 8th to implement the changes made by the Motu Proprio. On that day, we, together with the Church throughout the world, will joyfully commence the Jubilee of Mercy.

40 Days of Francis: Day 13

Pope Francis quote of the week: "There is no worse material poverty, I am keen to stress, than the poverty which prevents people from earning their bread and deprives them of the dignity of work."

Knot of the week: 8% of the population of the Diocese of Camden is unemployed.

An estimated 58,000 working New Jerseyans earn less than minimum wage.

We pray during this week of the 40 Days of Francis for those who struggle to find employment in the Diocese of Camden. Often, unemployment or underemployment forces families to make impossible decisions between paying bills, utilities or rent, and buying food. This week as part of 40 Days of Francis, high school students from the Catholic Diocesan high schools will help Catholic Charities transport a large donation of food to pantries throughout the diocese. They are helping untie some of the knots for families in South Jersey. This week is also Catholic Charities' annual Justice for All Dinner, raising funds that go to direct emergency assistance for families. Learn more at CatholicCharitiesCamden.org/40Days.

Collegium, Haddon Heights - Converging with The World Meeting of Families, we have a VERY SPECIAL GUEST coming on MONDAY, Sept. 21st at 7:30. Coromoto, the daughter of Servant of God, Maria Esperanza will be speaking about her mother and the Family. Joining her will be her husband Carlos, as well as Piri, Coky and Fr. Timothy Byerley. Come to hear Maria's message on the family as well as experience the joy and love that exudes from this family! (The book "Maria Esperanza and the Grace of Betania" will be available for purchase.) Doors open at 6:30, light refreshments will be served. Invite others to experience the beauty of this night!
