Dear Friends in Christ,

I was recently reminded by a parishioner that often the Church requests that we do certain practices, but do not always explain the reason for doing them. Most importantly, we must always realize that the Church wants us to grow closer to Christ in everything we do. So, why give up meat on Ash Wednesdays, Fridays during Lent and we fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday? It was on the Friday we call Good (the day Jesus saved us from sin and death) that He gave up His flesh for the life of the world. We are called on days of fasting and abstinence (giving up meat) on certain days to commemorate Jesus' self giving of his body. We give up animal flesh. Sometimes, people say, I am a vegetarian! Well, we must make an alternative sacrifice. In the past, prior to the 1970's, a Catholic was required to abstain from meat every Friday. This gave an identity to the Catholic. The Church realized that people were eating lobster, shrimp, etc. on this day and that the meaning was being lost. The Church taught that if one ate meat on Fridays they should do another penance instead. It is always a day of penance. Regretfully, this is hardly remembered. Now, Friday is like any other day...it has simply become the last day before our weekend. We fast and give up things we love to connect us to the sacrifice of Jesus who gave everything for us. The more we empty ourselves, the more we can be filled with the love of God and our neighbor. In a time when we can have almost any food, it is good to discipline our bodies and to make us appreciate God's gifts. I remember when I was young and receiving an orange in the winter was such a treat. Now, they are available at any time and I really could care less about oranges in winter. When you cannot have something, you enjoy it all the more when you eat it. When we give up anything by choice, we should then embrace something else. Acts of charity are at the top of the list. Blessed Teresa of Calcutta said of this holy season, "As Lent is the time for greater love, listen to Jesus' thirst...'Repent and believe' Jesus tells us. What are we to repent? Our indifference, our hardness of heart. What are we to believe? Jesus thirsts even now, in your heart and in the poor – He knows your weakness. He wants only your love, wants only the chance to love you."

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Each week we will see a family receive a Crucifix to take home for the week to pray for vocations to the Holy Priesthood and Religious Life. It is contained in a beautiful handcrafted box which also serves as a stand for the Crucifix. Prayers to be used by the host family are on a laminated program in the box. Every weekend the host family will return the Crucifix in procession. A new host family will receive it at the end of Mass. Let us pray for holy vocations to religious life from our parish. If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Father Szolack.

February 21 - The Pasquale family

February 28 - The Davis Family

Please contact Mrs. Denise Dietrich 215-901-3199 if you would like your family to receive the crucifix at St. John Vianney Church. Thank you.
