Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In today's Gospel, Jesus was so frustrated with the lip-service of the Pharisees who only loved to talk about religion but failed to "do" religion. They were so proud of their knowledge about their religious laws and prophets and so considered themselves righteous and great. However, Jesus took a different turn from their religious practice and self-righteousness by saying: "The greatest among you must be your servant." The greatest in the eyes of God are the ones who are willing to serve. The more one serves, the greater he/she is in God's eyes. As followers of Jesus Christ, we all desire and aspire to be the greatest in the Kingdom of God, and this can be achieved only through loving service. For some serve others through the Vocations of the Priesthood and Religious Life, some serve others through parish ministries, some serve others through their own families, communities, etc. Let each one of us be a servant to our loved ones. Let each one of us be a servant to our parish community where we come together to worship, where we come together as brothers and sisters in Christ in time of joy and sorrow. Let us come to serve one another through our various parish ministries, to share our resources whenever needed.

O Lord Jesus, I want to be the greatest in your Kingdom by offering myself to be the servant of all. - Fr. Joe Pham

Please pray for the repose of the souls of :

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Each week we invite a family to take a Crucifix home for a week to pray for Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life.

November 5 - The Macdonald Family

If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Fr. Joe. Please contact Mrs. Zenith Macdonald at (856) 397-5978 if you would like your family to receive the Crucifix at St. Margaret Church. Thank you.

Could God be calling you to the Priesthood?

Come, consider the call. Fr. Michael Romano, Director of Vocations, is hosting a "Young Adult Priesthood Discernment Group" at Our Lady of Peace Parish Offices, 32 Carroll Avenue, Williamstown, NJ. If you are currently a junior or senior in high school, college student or in the professional world (up to 39 years old), and feel the possible call to the priesthood, this group can help you discern and pray with others who are also considering the priesthood. All meetings are on Sundays from 2:00-3:30 P.M. The schedule is as follows:
November 12, 2017, January 14, 2018, February 11, 2018, March 11, 2018, April 15, 2018. For more information, please call the Office of Vocations at 856-583-2864 or email:
