Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we come near to the end of this calendar year, we also celebrate Christ the King Sunday which is the last Sunday of the liturgical year. We adore Jesus Christ Our Lord the King of the universe since he is the creator of the whole universe and redeemer of humanity.

Unlike the earthly kings, Jesus Christ is the King of love, the King who came into the world not to live but to die so that his subjects might live. The King who came not to condemn but to redeem. The King who came not to be served but to serve. For this reason, we call him the King above all other kings. When asked by Pilate “Are you the King of the Jews?” in today’s Gospel, Jesus replied: “My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here.”

Through baptism, we are redeemed and sealed by Christ the King’s blood and we no longer belong to this earthly kingdom but belong to the Kingdom promised by Jesus Christ. This earthly kingdom is here today and gone tomorrow. All its “treasure and glory” are fading away and eventually will turn into “nothingness”; whereas the Kingdom in which we belong is coming and has no end. Every one of us must choose one; either to live our lives according to this earthly kingdom or to choose the kingdom to come. We must choose between being attached and blinded by the things which are here today and gone tomorrow or choose the things that last forever. It is easy to fall into the temptation of defining ourselves based on our social status, wealth, or any “glories” of this world. These things do not make up our identities. Our identities are truly rooted in our Baptismal status. Our “wealth” is our faith and moral truths taught by Jesus our King. Ultimately our glory is the everlasting life and happiness awaiting us in the Kingdom to come where our Lord Jesus Christ is the King of kings and Lord of lords who reigns forever and ever amen! - Fr. Joe Pham

The Kings Men meet every Saturday morning in the Ministry Center from 7:00 to 8:30 AM.

During our meeting we discuss our successes and struggles as Catholic men as it relates to our daily battle to grow as men of God and be the leaders and protectors of our families that God created us to be. We hold each other accountable by confessing our weaknesses. We challenge each other to persevere with the help of God's grace in our ongoing struggle for masculine holiness.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more Priests in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.
