Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Time is counting down as we get closer to the celebration of Christmas, the Birth of the Son of God, our Redeemer. Are we ready to celebrate the birth of our redemption? To rejoice as God and humanity reconciled? And to open wise the door of our hearts for the Immanuel-God-with-Us to enter?

Indeed, the Incarnation of God made man is the beginning of our redemption, our new birth in God's Kingdom, since through the union of God and man in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we all became adopted children of God. The Good News of God and humanity being reconciled and united have been proclaimed from generation to generation. For this reason our hearts must rejoice and wisely opened in waiting for the Immanuel, God-with-us, to enter.

Unfortunately, there are so many attractions and distractions which often take away the true meaning and the profound loving mystery of Christmas. Our true peace and joy at the Birth of Christ do not depend on spectacular Christmas lights and trees, magnificent nativities, or fanciful Christmas gifts. Rather our true peace and joy at Christmas depend on the divine truths revealed through the mystery of the Incarnation. Our true joy and peace is acquired through the knowledge of being redeemed and not condemned. It unites our human sinful nature to the divine nature of God which makes it possible for us to be called children of God, and ultimately being promised of eternal life and happiness in the heavenly kingdom.

Let the peace and joy of Christmas replace our anxiety and weariness, our sorrow and suffering, hurt and hatred, greed and wrongful desire. Let us celebrate Christmas 2024 with firm conviction of joy and peace as St. Paul convinced us in today's second reading: "Brothers and sisters: Rejoice in the Lord always".—Fr. Joe Pham

The Kings Men meet

every Saturday morning in the Ministry Center from 7:00 to 8:30 AM. During our meeting we discuss our successes and struggles as Catholic men as it relates to our daily battle to grow as men of God and be the leaders and protectors of our families that God created us to be. We hold each other accountable by confessing our weaknesses. We challenge each other to persevere with the help of God's grace in our ongoing struggle for masculine holiness.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more Priests in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.
