Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

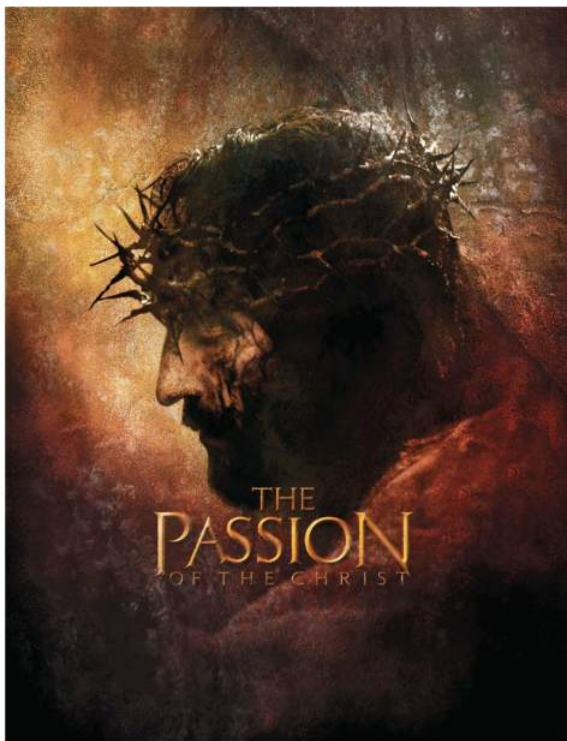

From the beginning of the divine plan of salvation, during the Old Testament period, God gave the Ten Commandments through Moses to the chosen people as moral guidelines for them to live. The Ten Commandments were given to keep the people from not committing sins: “You shall not kill, steal, commit adultery, etc.” However, when Jesus came during the New Testament period, he perfected the Ten Commandments in the Old Testament by adding and teaching “eight more new commandments”, the Beatitudes, which were taught by Jesus in today’s Gospel. Unlike the Ten Commandments: “You shall not do...”, the Beatitudes command: “Blessed are those who do...”.

The Ten Commandments forbid people not to “do”; while the Beatitudes command people to “do”. In other words, to be more actively manifesting their faith by living out the Beatitudes which would lead to “perfection, holiness, and righteousness” in the eye of God. Indeed, as disciples of Christ and the members of His Mystical Body, the Church, we should not just passively follow Jesus and be inactively involved in the Church. Just like a member of a family, one should not just: “don’t kill, steal, or commit adultery...” against any members of the family; but rather one should be more actively caring, loving, and sacrificing for his or her loved ones as well. If we just live our faith by keeping the Ten Commandments alone, then we are not “qualified” to be with God for all eternity in heaven because not committing sin or violating the Ten Commandments is just fulfilling our moral obligations and not making us “perfect, holy, and righteous”.

Jesus does not expect us to live the whole Beatitudes in our lives, which is not easy or even impossible due to our human weakness and sinfulness; however, it does not mean that we can not live at least one of them in our lives.

Let each one of us just pick one of the Beatitudes and try to live it faithfully so that: “the Kingdom of God will be yours”. ~Fr. Joe Pham
