The Sanctuary lamp at St. Margaret Church is lit in loving memory of Peter Hodson req. by His son, Joe & Family

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more Priests in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.

Office of Vocations (856)583-2864

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter which is also called the Divine Mercy Sunday, we are reminded that the nail marks on Jesus's hands and feet and the scar on his side are still bleeding everyday for our sins.

Today's Gospel tells us that, after the resurrection, the Risen Christ appeared to his disciples, and everyone was there except Thomas. The absence of Thomas did not happen by chance but by God's providence. The doubting Thomas' absence does not have a negative impact upon our belief of Jesus' resurrection; but rather it strengthens and affirms the resurrection of Jesus. When Thomas was told by his fellow men that Jesus came back to life and appeared to them, he responded:

"Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Thomas' demanding proof is providentially serving a two-fold-purpose: proof of the true resurrection of Jesus Christ and proof of His infinite mercy for humanity. When the Risen Christ appeared to His disciples again, Thomas was with them. Jesus invited Thomas to put his finger into His nail marks and put his hand into His side. Surprisingly Thomas did not do it. Instead he cried out from the depth of his heart: "My Lord and my God!". For Thomas, the evidence of the resurrection of Jesus was so overwhelming. Jesus was living. He was showing His crucified scars and talking to him with the same caring voice and gentle way as He always had before. For this reason, instead of touching and examining the scars of Jesus, Thomas cried out "My Lord and my God" which implied: "My Lord and my God, please forgive my obstinate heart and my unbelief".

Indeed, the Risen Christ intended to keep the nail marks on his hands and feet and the scar on his side forever, as signs of His Divine Mercy for humanity. Let us come to the Eucharistic Table to touch Jesus's nail marks and scars which are still bleeding everyday for love of us. Let us come to receive His Divine Mercy and be saved from eternal condemnation. "What a wondrous gift Oh my soul".

Fr. Joe Pham.

Have a blessed Divine Mercy Sunday!

OUR LADY OF FATIMA LOVES TO VISIT

We invite everyone to host the Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima for one week or more. The purpose of this spiritual program is to fulfill Our Lady's request at Fatima more than 100 years ago to pray the Rosary for peace, conversion, and healing of family. This is a great opportunity for all parishioners to invite the Blessed Virgin Mary to your home in a tangible and prayerful way. Let Our Lady enter your home to bring conversion, love, joy, peace and healing to your family. To arrange for a one-week hosting of Our Lady of Fatima, please contact Mrs. Patti Graham at pattigraham@comcast.net or call the rectory at 856-848-0047. The host family should return the Statue of Mary on Sunday 10:00 a.m. mass so that the next host family will receive her at the end of the Mass.
