Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more Priests in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.

Office of Vocations (856)583-2864

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In today's Gospel, Jesus attempts to explain the Kingdom of God in human terms by using a variety of images such as "treasure", "pearls", and "net":

"The Kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in the field..., the Kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls..., the Kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea..." (Matt 13:44).

The reason Jesus did not give a concrete definition of the Kingdom of heaven was because the Kingdom of Heaven is not a physical location here or there; but rather it is a "state of being".

When Jesus came down from heaven, he brought with him the Kingdom of God in his person. Therefore, the Kingdom of God is already here but not yet. It is already here because Jesus already came. However it does not come to its completion or is fully manifested until the second coming of Jesus Christ. The Kingdom which Jesus was talking about was the state of living in a loving communion with God. Having God in our lives is like possessing a treasure or a fine pearl. It is an undeniable truth that if we have the whole world but do not have God in our lives, it means nothing. This is because the whole world will not go with us when God calls us home.

Let us search for the eternal treasure, eternal pearls rather than the things which are here today and gone tomorrow. Let us invest our time, talents, and treasure in the eternal Kingdom rather than just invest our whole lives in this earthly kingdom where nothing lasts forever.

Fr. Joe Pham

PRECIOUS BLOOD OF JESUS

July is dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus — a whole month to reflect on the sacrificial love of Christ and the gift of our redemption.

Every time we attend Mass, we encounter this mystery. The priest raises the chalice and the wine becomes the Precious Blood of Jesus — poured out for us, for the forgiveness of sins. It is one of the most profound realities of our faith.
