Pray for Vocations

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response.
May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more priest in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever.

AMEN.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In today's Gospel St. Peter asked Jesus: "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Imagine if Jesus asked Peter the same question: "How often would you like me to forgive your sins?" For the first question, Peter gave the number "7 times". For the second question, I wonder if Peter would give the same number: "7 times". I doubt that.

This Gospel compels us to reflect more about "practicing forgiveness" in our lives. We certainly want God to forgive us over and over again, On the other hand, we give a limit when we come to forgive others. If we say to ourselves: "I am foolish to forgive someone who keeps offending me or hurting me over and over again. Maybe I can forgive that person two or three times maximum but no more". The question is, who is "foolish"? The person who offended us will be forgiven by God through the Sacrament of Penance. Yet, we can't forgive? In this case, the one who wronged the other was forgiven. However, the one who did not forgive was not forgiven.

Jesus asks us to forgive over and over again since we have no right to condemn anyone, only God has that right. However, the only right or more precisely the privilege that Jesus gave us is the "right" to forgive others. Indeed, we are all sinners and how can sinners condemn sinners? Only the guiltlessness can condemn. Let us cease condemnation and increase forgiveness. Let us forgive so that we will be forgiven. "Lord, forgive us as we forgive those who trespass against us" Amen.

Fr. Joe Pham.
